A Natural Sanctuary: Dunvegan Summer

Village is a 23-acre haven tucked into a mix of open meadows and virgin forest right on the banks of the Peace River. The riparian landscape attracts abundant birds, wildlife, wildflowers, berry bushes, and native grasses. The Hines Creek also flows through the community, into the Peace River, creating a scenic trail system for hiking, exploring, or quiet reflection.

The Peace River Valley creates a microclimate, sheltered from prairie winds—making it a thriving environment for gardening, flora, and fauna. It's a lifestyle that respects the land while enhancing it.
