Tucked away just 15 minutes from Calgary's downtown core, the neighbouring communities of Glendale and Glenbrook might be two of the city's best-kept secrets. These two communities have really been under the radar. They are full of mature trees and parks and schools, and although they are neighbouring communities, each has its own vibe. The two communities are split by 26th Avenue S.W., with Glendale to the north and Glenbrook to the south. The perimeter of the two communities forms a square, bordered by Sarcee Trail to the west, 37th Street to the east, Richmond Road to the south and 17th Avenue to the north. These are real family neighbourhoods. There is a real sense of community, where neighbours know each other, adding the schools are a big attraction for young families moving into the community. Great schools: A.E. Cross Junior High School Calgary Christian K thru 12 , Glenbrook Elementary School , St. Thomas Aquinas Elementary. Some other Top Attractions: Turtle Hill is a fun-filled local recreation destination. In the winter months, it's a tobogganing favourite. Optimist Athletic Park features three sports fields and nine ball diamonds, including one dedicated to Little Leaguers. Plenty of transportation options including the Westgate LRT station and quick access to downtown, Glenbrook, Sarcee & Stoney Trails. Come soon!
